ABOUT ATTRACTION

UP AND COMING

Kingswood is one of Hull's more modern suburbs. Development started in the 1990s and the area has expanded ever since, with shops and amenities being added all the time. The most recent plans for new shops in the area estimate that up to 250 full-time jobs could be created, alongside part-time vacancies.

The main development in the area so far has been the creation of more than 3,600 new homes in Hull. There are plans to almost double this figure over the coming years.

The Kingswood Area Action Plan has helped to bring in new housing developments. It was designed to accelerate investment and encourage building throughout the suburb.

ON THE DOORSTEP

Living in Kingswood gives you the best of all worlds. You're never far from what the centre of Hull has to offer, but there's also plenty to see and do much closer to home.

Kingswood Retail Park, a seven-minute drive or 25-minute walk away, has everything you need for shopping and entertainment. Catch a film at Cineworld or don your bowling shoes at Hollywood Bowl. You can also do your weekly food shop at the Asda Superstore or M&S Food. There's also a petrol station.

The Village Green Café Bar could well become your local when you're living at Attraction. You can walk there in a matter of minutes, and its freshly made food is a great excuse to opt out of cooking once in a while.

GETTING AROUND

Attraction is on Wawne Road, and is close to many important road links. In less than 20 minutes, you can be on the A165 which will take you to Bridlington and Scarborough - perfect for family days out on the coast.

Getting into the city is easy as the closest bus stop is a four-minute walk away. Hop on the number 10 bus services to Hull Paragon Interchange and you'll be in the city in around 35 minutes. If you'd rather drive, Holwell Road will take you into the heart of the city in less than 20 minutes.

Hull Railway Station, 5.6 miles away, has direct services to destinations such as London King's Cross, Doncaster, Manchester and York.

SCHOOLS AND LEARNING

You'll never be short of great schools when you live in Kingswood, and several of them are a few miles from home.

The closest school to Attraction is Broadacre Primary School. It's open to children aged three to 11 and was rated good by Ofsted at its latest inspection.

For older children, St Mary's College is a 13-minute drive away. It's one of the best schools in the area, receiving an outstanding rating from Ofsted and is open to students aged 11 to 18.

The University of Hull, 4.5 miles from Attraction, offers undergraduate, postgraduate and PHD qualifications in a wide range of subjects from Criminology to Drama, Marketing to Philosophy.

HEALTH AND FITNESS

If you want to hit the gym, join a group exercise class or perhaps go for a swim, head down to David Lloyd Hull. Located 3.1 miles from Attraction, it's even got an on-site café where you can wind down after your workout.

Further afield is the Hull Golf Club. This 18-hole course is a 24-minute drive from Attraction.

Kingswood Surgery, an 18-minute walk from Attraction, is open six days a week. You'll also find Jhoots Pharmacy across the road. Another option is Highlands Health Centre at 0.9 miles away.

The nearest hospital is Hull Royal Infirmary, 6 miles from the development. It has an accident and emergency department, as well as other general surgery, maternity services and diabetic medicine.

SHOPPING

There's no shortage of shopping opportunities when you are living at Attraction. Kingswood Retail Park has high street names such as Next, Argos and Matalan, as well as an Asda Superstore. Best of all, it's 1.3 miles away.

Whitefriargate in Hull's Old Town is not to be missed. Wind your way through the historic streets to the Grade II listed Hepworth Arcade, with its host of quirky independent retailers.

If you love fresh produce, Humber Bridge Farmers Market is just the place. Thousands of people flock there on the first Sunday of every month to buy delicious produce and handmade crafts. You can join them by travelling 30 minutes from home.
